A small school,
with so much potential
only some can view.
It gives us the ability to see,
the confidence in ourselves.
It gives us the strength to try when we feel like giving up.
Not even once, were you untrue.
When we have a problem,
you're always there.
There's never a time you don't care.
During stages of growing, and rearranging
thanks for being by our side.
Someday, whatever we may be you will have led us to our destiny.
You encouraged us, in all we did you helped us develop the potential we hid.
Our future will broaden because of you
It might have been harder to make it through.
Thanks to this school for the strength and knowledge we have won.
What kind of school is this?
Come inside and you will see how really special Bowman can be!

SOMETHING SPECIAL

ANNA DUBOIS

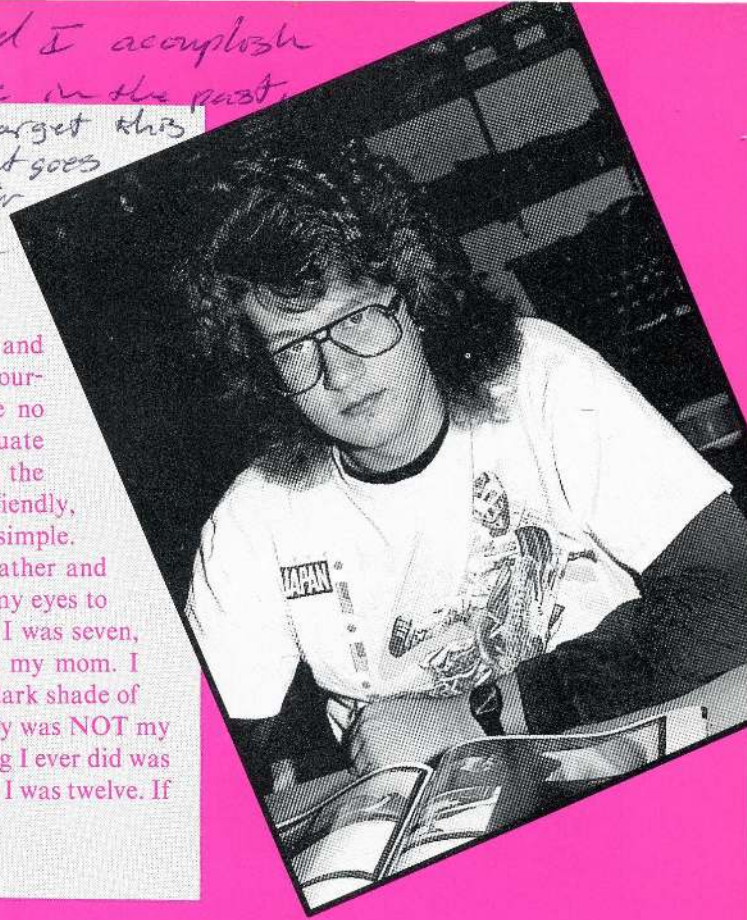

The new Bowman seems cool, and I think it will be harder to ditch! The people at Bowman are SPECIAL - you don't have to be in a special group of people to be "liked". You can be yourself and like everyone. They're all unique in their own way, and no one is really stuck-up. When I graduate, I will miss the people here. I can love hundreds of people as friends, but I can only be in love with one SPECIAL person. My friends like me for who I really am. If they don't like me for that, then I guess they don't like me! I love to dance and go motorcycling, and listen to music when I have spare time. I look up to my Grandma because she took care of her kids and her kid's kids and she still keeps going. The quality I most look for in a friend is trust. If we trust each other, then we can get along great. I am sometimes afraid of being alone, because then I feel that I have no one. I'm unique in every way, and people can never REALLY figure me out. I wouldn't really want to read anyone's mind - what people think is their own business. If I had one week to live, first I'd tell everyone that I loved them and to take care of themselves. Next, I'd get a whole bunch of people together and have a great time, and finally, on the last day, I'd go somewhere by myself and die peacefully. After Bowman I plan to go to college, earn a business degree, and then open my own beauty parlor.

Peg, One year at Bowman and I accomplish more things than I ever have in the past. I know for a fact that I won't forget this place, especially you. I think that goes for all us Tarvers. Keep on on their toes Peg, I'll be back to visit, and you can count on that.

RUSS TARVER

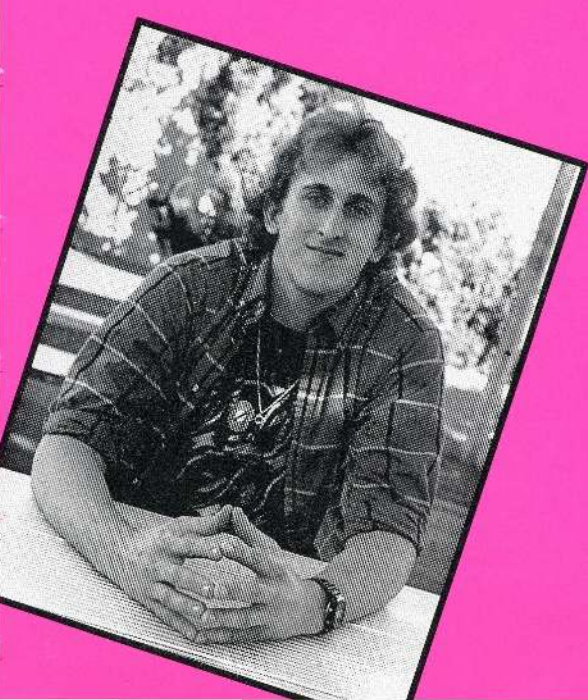

Love
Russ
Tarver

Bowman is SPECIAL, as you can really be yourself and still be accepted. Here it is much easier to motivate yourself and work on your own, especially as there are no teachers breathing down your back. When I graduate from Bowman I will miss the personal approach of the staff. The people who interest me are talkative, friendly, creative, realistic, smart, and intellectual, or just simple. They are the most unique people. I look up to my father and Athena. They really help me to be myself and open my eyes to reality. The most embarrassing moment of my life? I was seven, and at the store I ran into a woman I thought was my mom. I grabbed on to her leg, wouldn't let go, and turned a dark shade of purple in embarrassment when I realized that the lady was NOT my mother! Everyone in line laughed . . . The wildest thing I ever did was to throw a dozen eggs one at a time across Vons, when I was twelve. If I built up the nerve I'd do it again!

CHANCE RUTLEDGE

The SPECIAL relationships that develop between positive-minded students and the instructors at Bowman make this a SPECIAL school. When I graduate, I'll miss the warmth of the faculty. I think a bigger school will be great! It will be possible to bring the benefits of individualized learning to a larger group of people. The qualities I look for in friendship are: human head, red blood cells, pulse! I've done far too many wild and crazy things to single out a single one, and seeing that I'm still here I'd do them all again! Neither boys nor girls really have it easier than the other. Everyone has his or her personal hardships, and no one can really say who has it harder. I look up to anyone over 6'8", and am interested in people who can survive within the system without being a part of it. Yes, I do put on an act-around friends — with 40 foot stage, full orchestra, and captive audience . . . I plan to attend college and become a professional student. If I had only one week in which to live, I'd count the grains of sand along the coast!

MARK ADAMS

When I graduate from Bowman, I will miss the encouragement I got from all the staff. I won't miss the rules, I guess! The school is SPECIAL, because it gives us the chance to be individuals and work at our own pace. My friends most like the way I can cheer people up, and that I'm there when they need me. I feel that I'm a unique individual and I don't put on an act, because I've found that people like me more if I'm just myself. The hardest thing about growing up is hitting reality too soon in life and not being ready for it. I'm sometimes afraid of dying before I've had a chance to live. The most embarrassing moment in my life happened when I was five years old. Someone told me I was a chicken because I wouldn't jump off a two-story building — so I jumped, and broke both wrists! I look up to John Jacobs and the Power Team because they help me to see how easy it can be to live, by myself, and not worry about other people! I'm interested in motorcycles, snow and water skiing, and jet skiing. After I graduate from Bowman, I'd like to either get back into acting or join the Highway Patrol.

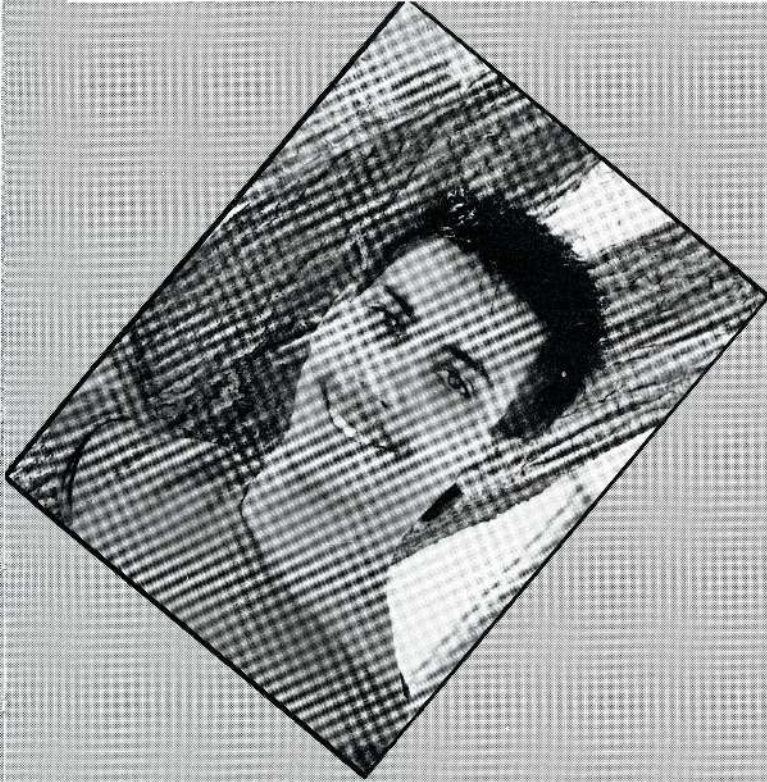

BRANDI BLUE

When I graduate and leave Bowman, I will most miss the people and how nice everyone was to me. I won't miss the work! The new school will be a nice change, and it couldn't hurt the school's reputation. The people and the teachers make Bowman SPECIAL. If I could read one SPECIAL person's mind, I'd have difficulty in choosing between two: my father, and my boyfriend, Tony. The SPECIAL person I look up to is my mom. Qualities I look for in a friend are the ability to care, listen, and understand. I think my friends like a variety of things about me - probably most is my sense of humor and my liking to be spontaneous. For example, a bunch of friends and I removed cones off the side of the road and blocked off people's houses and some busy streets. I'd probably do it again - it was fun! I think I dress with an uppity attitude. When I graduate I'd like to move to Europe and manage a hotel or even a bank. Growing up takes so long - it seems as if people who are older than you treat you like a child no matter how old you get. I really enjoy life. I like spending time with my friends and I love to spend money.

BLYTHE PAGE

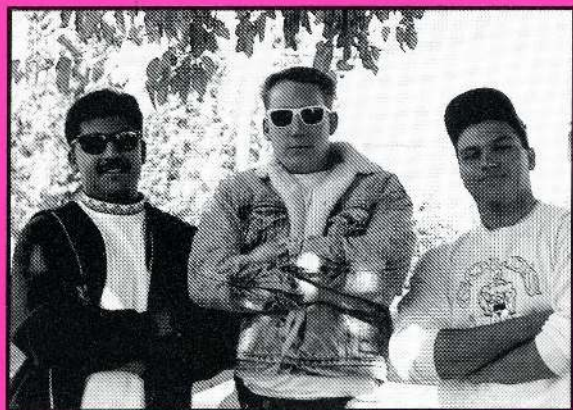

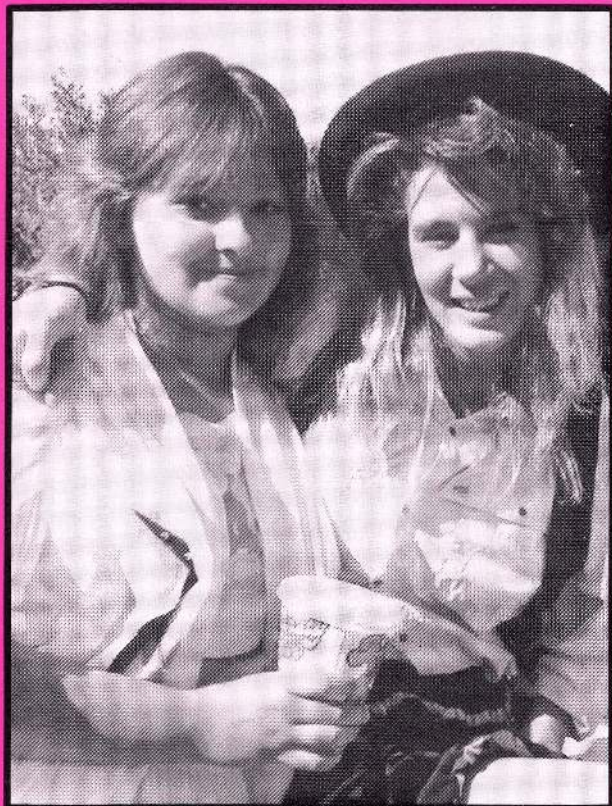

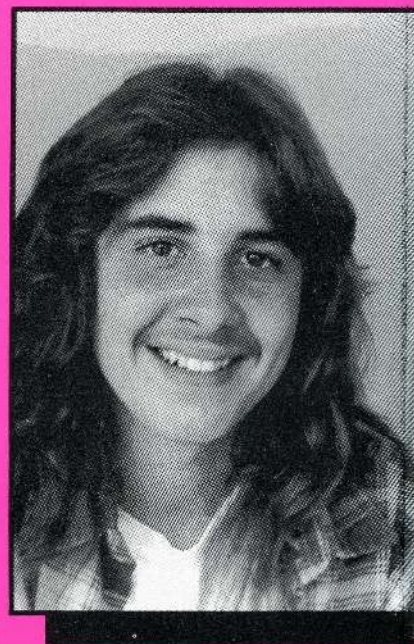

Bowman is SPECIAL to me because its small size allows the teachers to give us the help we need. When I graduate from Bowman, I will miss my art classes the most. The most SPECIAL quality I have is caring about other people. I don't put on an act to be accepted - I can get along with practically anybody, but I am the way I am. I'm interested in people who play musical instruments, people who don't just care about themselves, and E.S.P.. Some girls have it easier than boys if they marry men who earn all the money. Some of them wake up to reality later and learn to take care of themselves, which I feel is very important. I look up to Randy Rhoads, and would cherish the gift if I could play guitar as well as he did. I play guitar in my spare time, and go 4 x 4ing with Joe in his jeep. I'd like to do some modeling after high school, and maybe go into oceanography. To unwind, I play "Diary of a Mad Man" on guitar. That song relaxes me!

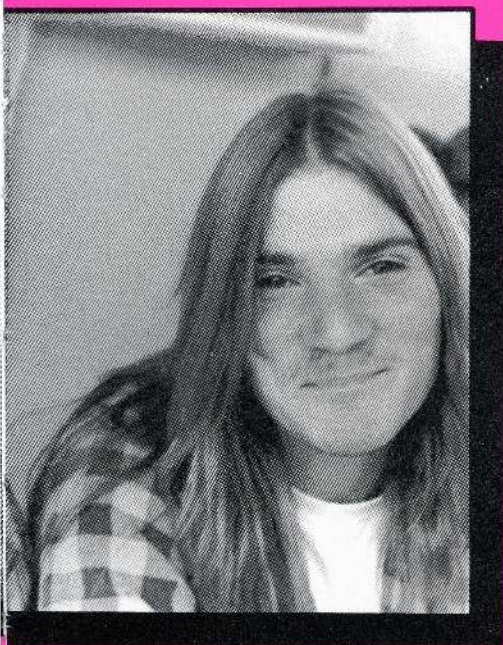

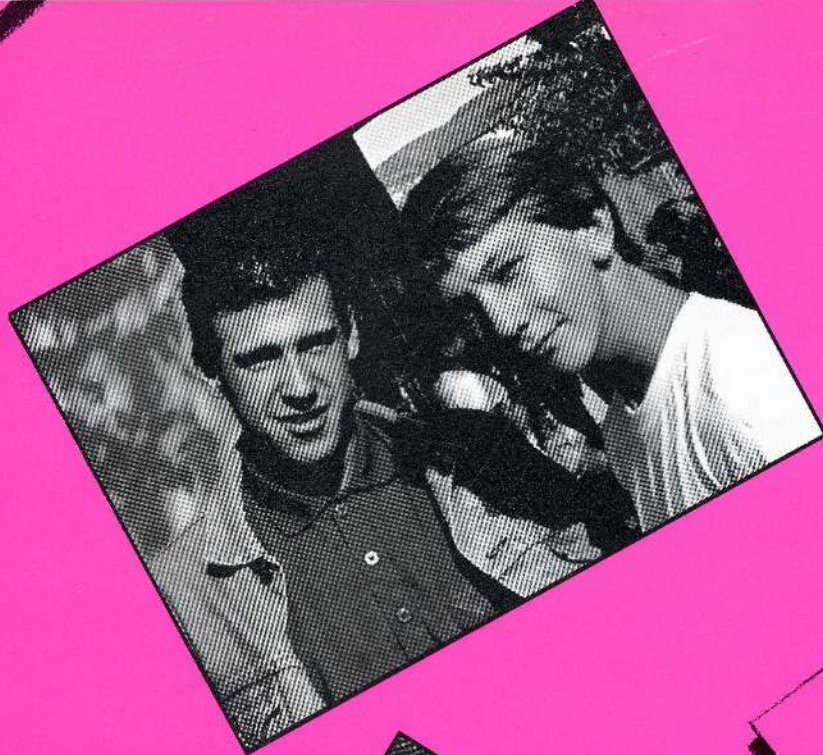

JOE KUTIVAN

Bowman's most SPECIAL quality is its flexible environment. After I graduate, I may go to junior college, more likely I will study acting. I don't put on an act around friends because I like to have friends who are interested in what I'm really about. The qualities I look for in a friend are maturity, understanding, and intelligence. I respect people who are outspoken, dependable and down to earth. My abilities, interests, and understanding insights are why my friends consider me a SPECIAL person. I'm real inside and out. On weekends you could find me reading, listening to music, watching T.V., or talking on the phone with Stacy. Or, when I'm switched to "energetic mode", you could find me kick-boxing or dancing. My biggest fear is not having control over great concerns in my life. The SPECIAL someone I look up to is God. The hardest part of growing up is learning lessons through painful trial and error.

Special

Moments

With Our Friends

Next year Bowman moves to a new location. On this thought, we asked the teachers what SPECIAL item they would take with them and why. Here are their responses.

JO ANN WARD: World Civ. A & B, U.S. History A & B, Government, Economics, A.S.B. Advisor

"When we move to the new Bowman I plan to take my computer because I would be lost without it."

We like the way Jo Ann has the ability to be serious about her work yet remain open and fun at the same time. She's special because of her involvement with the student activities.

DEBBIE HILD: Art, Yearbook

"I'm going to be sure to carefully pack all of the great student art work that I have saved over the years. It's like having little pieces of the old Bowman students still with me."

Debbie's ability to help students find their own hidden talents makes her very special. We also appreciate her warmth, friendliness, off-beat sense of humor, and her persistence with the yearbook staff.

SUZY MANSFIELD: English 9A, B, 10A, B, Science Fiction, Intro to Poetry, Humanities

"I'll take the VCR & TV from Shirley's room, so I can continue to show old classic movies that students groan at while they're watching."

Suzy is special because she puts so much extra effort into teaching. She appears to be mellow and happy. We can tell she really likes to teach English.

LYNN FORSTER: Work experience

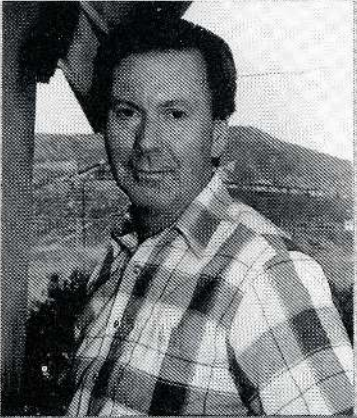

"I'll take the entire career center to the "NEW BOWMAN", where it will be expanded and hopefully more accessible to all students."

We like Lynn's very up-to-date sense of style. She is special in that she tries to get to know each and every one of us.

AL SCRASE: English, Driver Ed., Social Studies

"This old man will take new materials, new ideas, and an altered attitude to the new Bowman."

All lets us do our own thing. We admire his ability to teach kids who seem unwilling to learn. He makes real friendships with the students.

FUME TONKINSON: Business, Computers, Accounting, Foods, Human Development, Family Living

"I'm taking it all! Sixteen years of accumulated necessities have given me the reputation "If you need something, ask Fume!" I have a reputation to maintain."

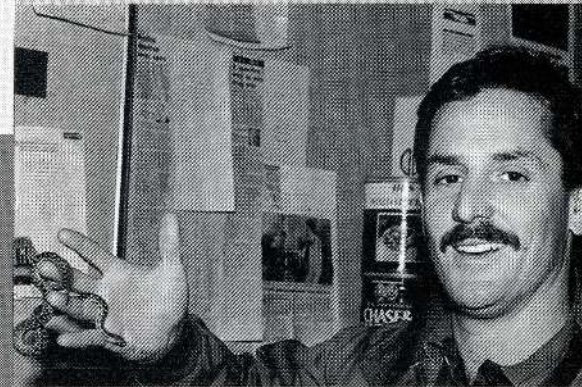

Fume is like our second mother. She tries to consider everyone's interests. She's a very good teacher. We think her special quality is her helpfulness.

BRIAN STIMAN: Science

"My animals. They are the only organisms that don't talk back to me!"

We think the way Brian struts across campus is extra-special. We appreciate his attempts at using teenage-talk.

SHIRLEY WHEELER: English 9A, B, 10A, B, Humanities, Intro to Poetry, Mythology, Folklore

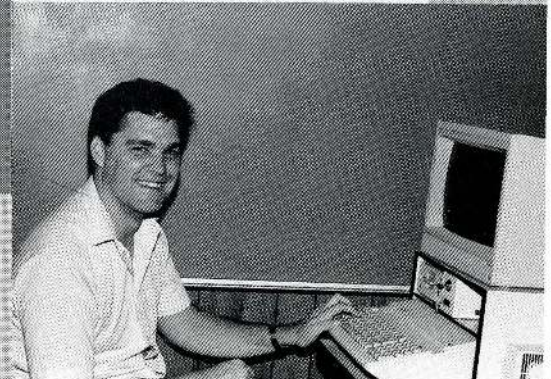

"When we move to the new school I will take with me the student photo gallery I have near my desk. In that way, I'll continue to carry the memories of Bowman students of the past with me."

Shirley really cares about her students. We can talk to her about anything. It seems as if she likes absolutely everybody. We kind of think of her as our resident philosopher.

DAN DOGGETT: Math Fundamentals, General Math, Math Applications, Pre-Algebra, Geometry

"I will be taking my computer software to the new Bowman. I want to make computer use an increasingly important part of the math program, to prepare Bowman students for our technological society."

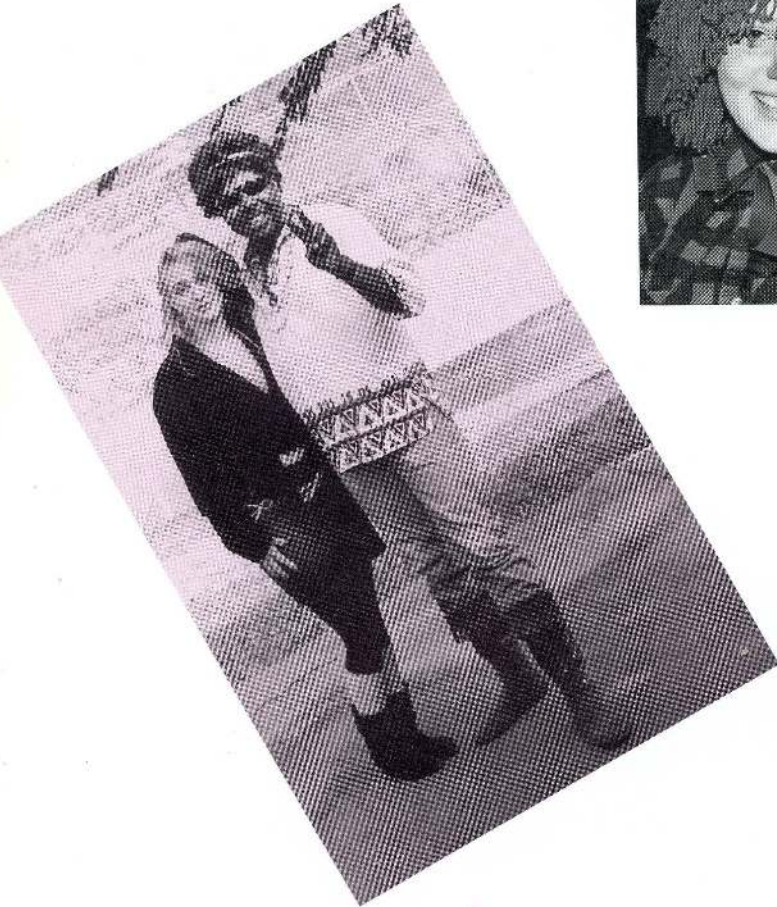

Dan is really a smart guy. He always knows the right answers. He's extremely patient and easy going. We like it when he talks about wallyball.

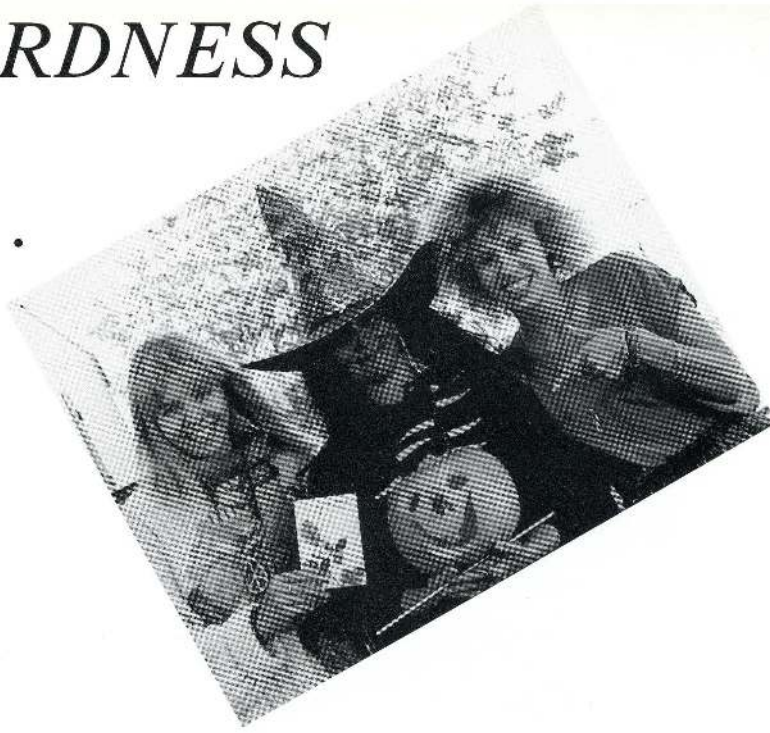

One day each year, a special holiday comes along that seems to cause the masses to strangely mutate; they develop facial and bodily deformities, sprout hair where none grew before, and are hard pressed to knock endlessly upon door after door, begging for sweets!

Fortunately, each home is guarded by a uniquely carved orange vegetable, which protects its inhabitants from harm. The date? It can only be October 31st, HALLOWEEN, that day when the normal, everyday people you know have a temporary lapse of reality — and here at Bowman we're no exception . . .

CREEPING WEIRDNESS CONSUMES COMMUNITY . . .

TONI MILTENBERGER

Counselor

The students, faculty, and staff are special at our "OLD BOWMAN"; but all the added new "faces" will make our "NEW BOWMAN" VERY SPECIAL — it will provide an even more exciting and challenging climate. There is nothing at Bowman that is "NOT SPECIAL"!

Sometimes it seems as if Toni gets to know us better than our parents. She helps to build our self-confidence and really gets in touch with each student. We also think she's got great advice.

She's a great alarm clock. We get the feeling she really cares whether we're at school. She must be very smart, because she always knows when we're pulling her leg.

PEGGY EFFERTZ

Attendance Clerk

A small pine tree which is now very tall and was planted at Bowman's beginning, will be replaced by a large Old Oak Tree on our new campus.

MARSHA BRIGLEB

Principal's Secretary

The Bowman lunchroom is a cozy corner but not SPECIAL at all. The staff lounge at the "NEW BOWMAN" will be bright and cheery with the addition of a patio, and should afford the staff some privacy at our break times.

She is the best manager of the pencil-and-change-shop we've had. She's got a wonderful upbeat personality and we think she really cares about us.

JOY WILLIAMSON

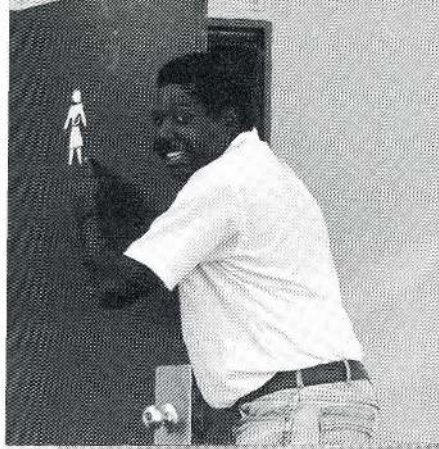

Teacher's Assistant

The parking lot is SPECIAL here at "OLD BOWMAN" because we all manage to fit in, juggle cars to get out, and still laugh about it. I'm looking forward to a real parking lot with REAL parking spaces.

What supposedly "Special Something" at the "OLD BOWMAN" is actually NOT special, but will be REALLY special at the "NEW BOWMAN"?

We admire her ability to walk with an extremely full cup of coffee!

He's a great story teller. He has gained our respect by being open and strict at the same time. He's the kind of guy you can't take advantage of because he's so cool.

MIKE CALHOUN
Campus Supervisor

The cold hamburgers and lasagna off the truck are SPECIAL, but the food warmers will be VERY SPECIAL. I also will NOT have to guard the restrooms as much.

BONNIE JAHARIS
Campus Supervisor

What I think will be SPECIAL at the "NEW BOWMAN" is I won't have to guard the bathrooms and walk around with a clipboard marking each student as they go to the bathroom.

We think her friendliness is SPECIAL. She is so easy to be around. We like the fact that she's so down to earth.

LINDA STREDWICK HORN
Teacher's Assistant

Although we will always remember our "dear old Art Room", art at the "NEW BOWMAN" will be a great experience. The new space will have a private courtyard, windows, new kiln, new darkroom, and a separate place for supplies. Art at the "NEW BOWMAN" will be truly SPECIAL.

JUANITA HAASE
Teacher's Assistant

My cramped little office with no working space is not too SPECIAL. I'm looking forward to a much more spacious work area, maybe with a window.

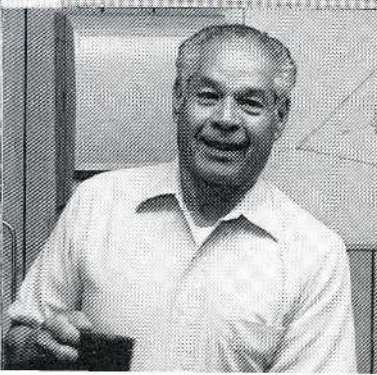

She has a SPECIAL glow about her that makes you want to smile. She can make us happy when we're down and she is always happy and has a lot of energy to help us.

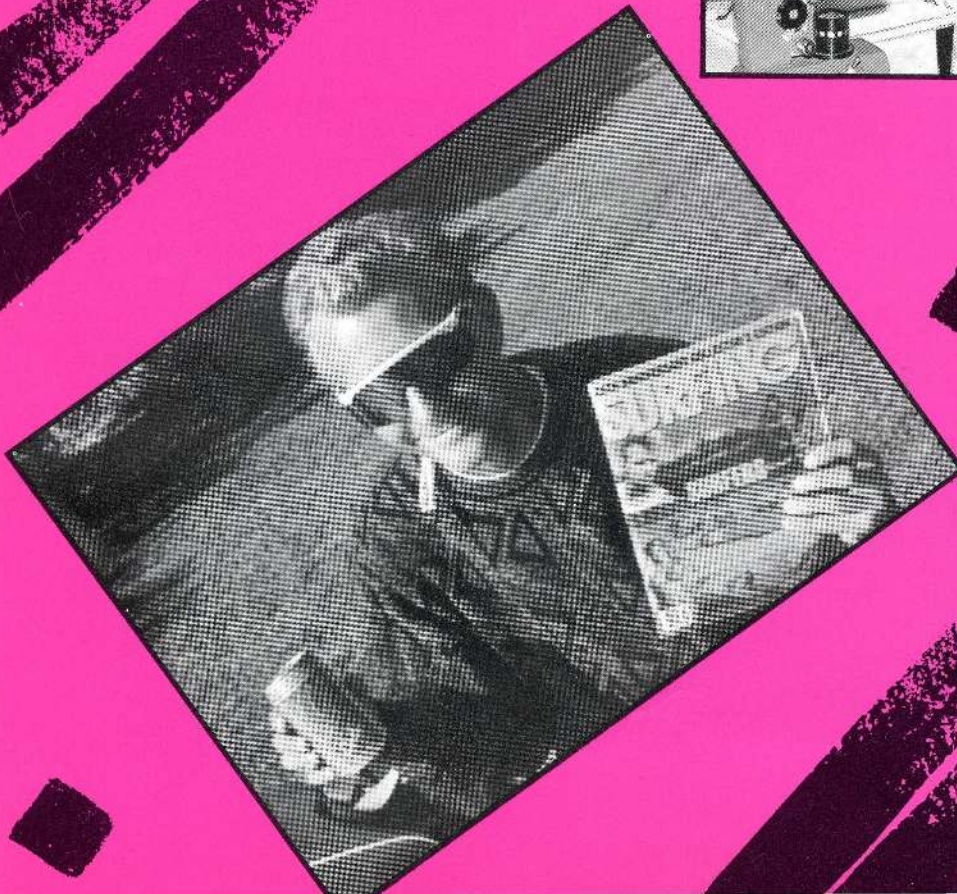

JOHNNY INZUNZA
Custodian

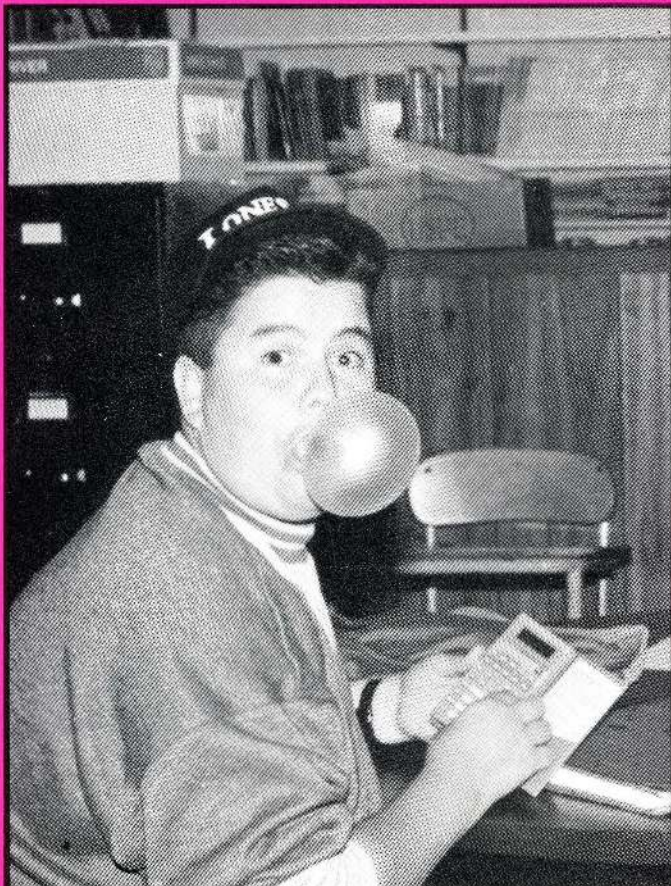

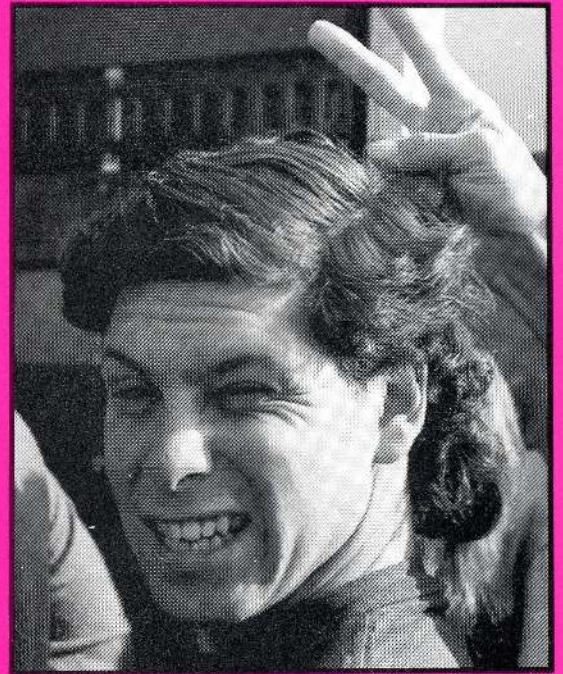

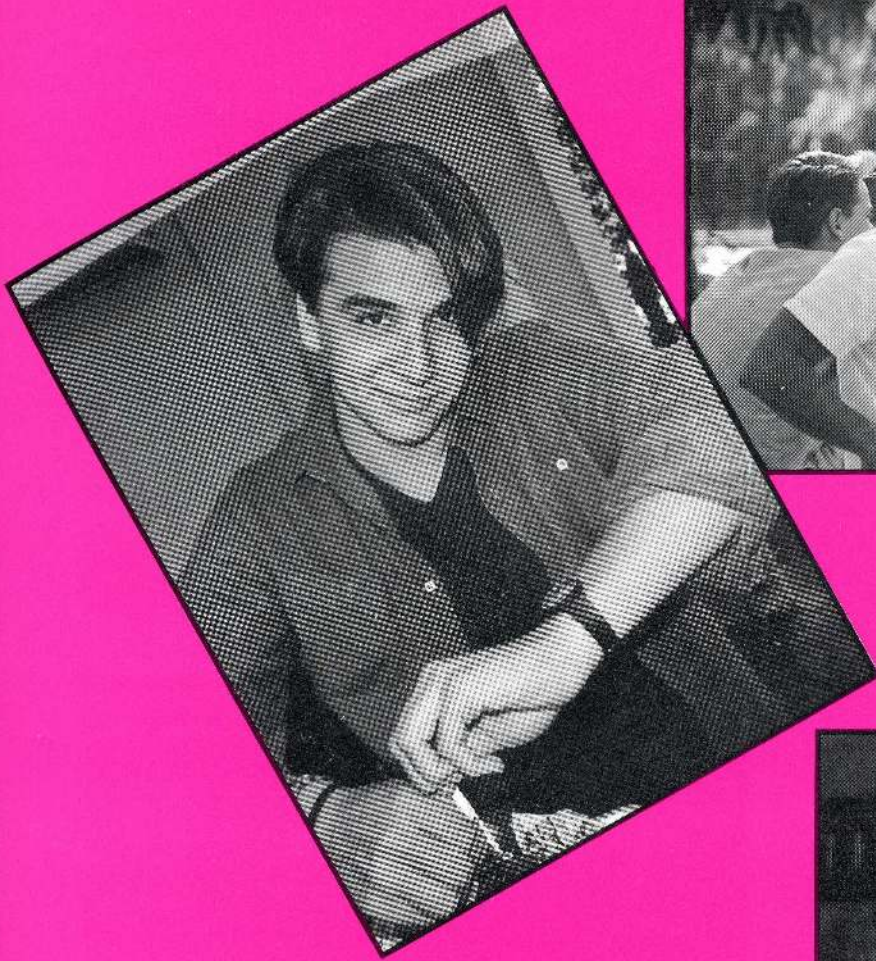

The sunken eating area, and the landscaping on the new campus will be REALLY SPECIAL.

She tries her best to work with us all individually and nothing seems to get her down. She's always got a smile for us.

Johnny is a person we always joke with between classes. He has a good sense of humor, and he cares about us.

Here's what the students think makes Mr. Artzer so SPECIAL.

He likes to work things out before dismissing us. He is concerned about us and has his own way of telling us. We think he's really tough on the outside but a softy inside.

Bowman High School is "SOMETHING SPECIAL" because of the special people found there - the Bowman staff. They serve SPECIAL students with particular needs - welcoming them as unique individuals and accepting them without conditions. Above all, the staff offers a fresh hope for success, a new opportunity - irrespective of past performance. Hope and help are there for the taking and each student is accepted as a whole person who has his own talents, dreams and ambitions. Although the staff and students are only together for a moment in time, they share learning and growing experiences which often produce treasured memories - of a SPECIAL school filled with SPECIAL people.

Mr. Richard Artzer
Principal

OUR SPECIAL ACHIEVERS

"TOP ATTENDANCE"

The students whose attendance was the best were Tony Slack and Amy Britton. Congratulations!!

"TOP TWENTY"

At the end of every semester, all the students' earned credits are added up. The students who receive 20 credits or more become known as the "Top Twenty", which is similar to the honors program. We would like to give special applause to the top three credit earners: Michael Ingold, Michelle Duke, and Doris Kinser. In addition, the following students have been on this list once, sometimes twice. Congratulations for a job well done!! Steven Alford, Amy Britton, Ann Buchan, Jonathan Burke, Louie Cervantes, Monique Conroy, Abran Gudino, Ron Mazza, Guillermo Plascencia, Julie Quintal, Shantel Reyman, Susan Rigaud, Russell Tarver, and Randy Taylor.

"EARLY GRADS"

Bowman High students work at their own pace and at their own individual level. In this way they can earn as many credits as they want or need, and as a result we have students graduating all year long. Bowman's early graduates for 1989-90 are: Dena Evans, who gets a standing ovation as this year's first graduate (9-22-89!), Matt Furstenfeld, Tarnia Praed, Gary Fisher, Brad Long, Brandi Blue, Michelle Duke, Tina Moe, and Anthony Slack. We wish all of you the best luck in whatever you go on to!

MOST ORIGINAL - Harry Hirst and Michelle Duke
"When they made us, they broke the mold!"

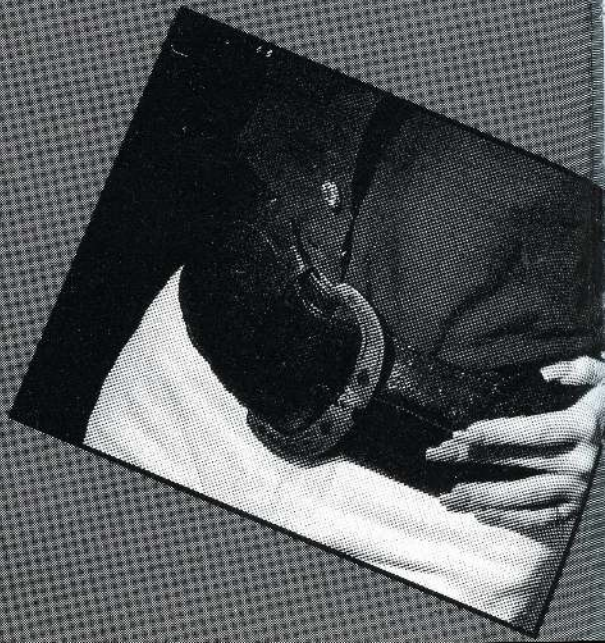

WHAT'S HOT and WHAT'S NOT

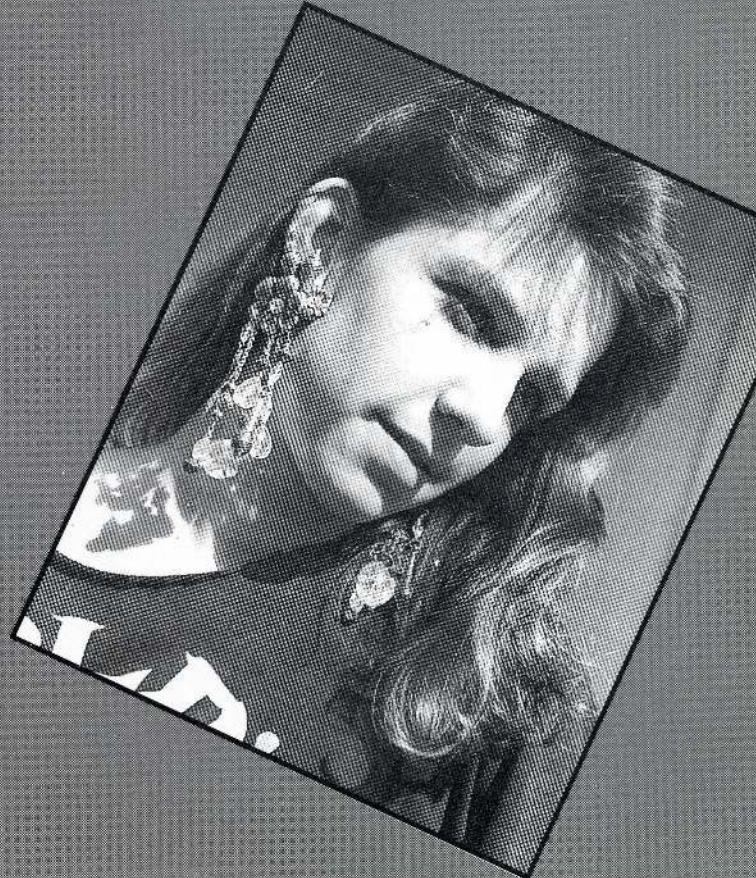

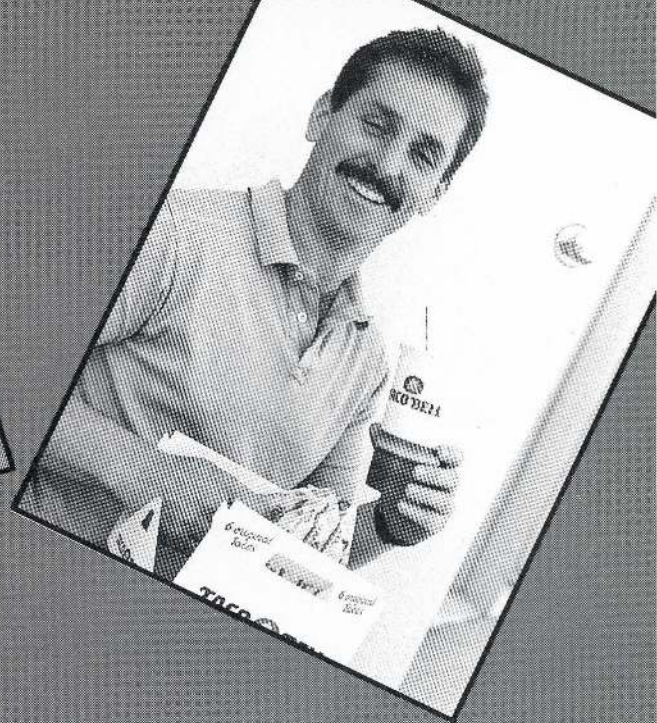

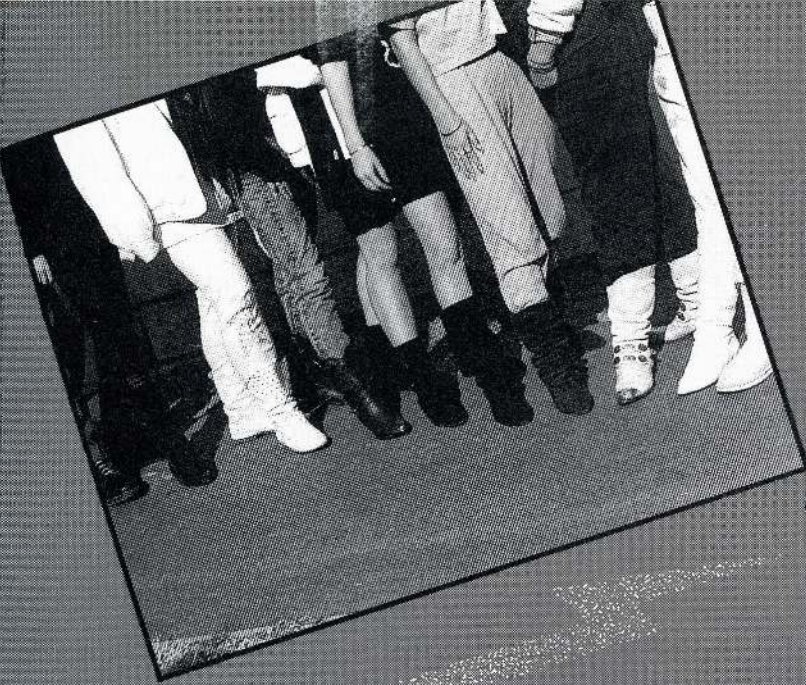

These things burned up the '89-90 year for us. You could see a lot of these fads around the Bowman campus. We've included a list of the not-so-hot items that burned OUT.

IN: air brushed nails friendship bracelets shark watches spiral perms
Nikes - L.A. Gears
Vans
big belts gaudy jewelry
leather fringe jackets
tie dye T-shirts
Oakleys

CREATING SOMETHING SPECIAL

Debbie Hild-ADVISER

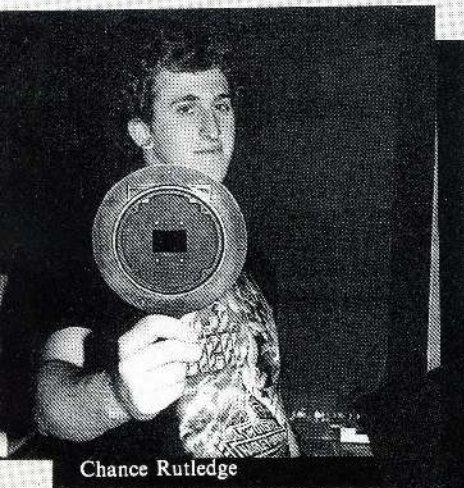

Mark Adams

This year, a small group of people were assembled with just one purpose in mind: to create Something Special - the 10th annual "Visions" yearbook here at Bowman.

Highest on our list of those to thank is God, for giving us the patience and the strength to keep this group together throughout the heated classroom discussions, the varying moods of those involved in production, and the many personal differences we all shared. Because, just as in the nine previous yearbooks, it's only by a miracle that we made it through to the end and were able to produce the book you now hold in your hands.

We would like to thank our sponsors for supporting us this year and the teachers for their patience. In addition, we would like to thank every one of you for making this book Special, and for giving us something to fill its pages with.

Bowman High School is a Special place - a school where students can be themselves. Although we do not have athletic teams, we do have outstanding activities. Who plans for and makes up these activities? Bowman's A.S.B. - the Associated Student body.

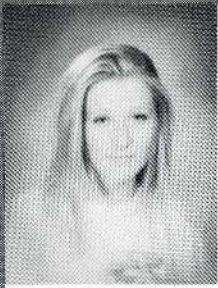

Each semester the students elect officers to lead the other members of our A.S.B. in activity planning and other areas. This year, Christine Butterfield was elected twice to serve as our A.S.B. President: first semester, her co-officers were Ron Mazza, V.P.; Paula Densford, Treasurer; and Tina Moe, Secretary. Second semester, the other officers were: Russell Tarver, V.P.; Steve Alford, Treasurer; Mark Adams, Secretary; and Chance Rutledge, Secretary.

Jo Ann Ward is our A.S.B. advisor. She helps keep us going - keeps us focused and working hard. Our Bowman representative to the Hart District Student Communication's Council, Gina DeAmicis, has also worked very hard this year.

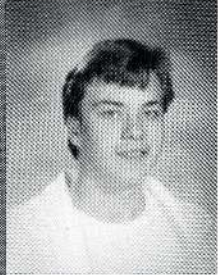

This year, we've planned and enjoyed some great activities - pumpkin carving, relay races and volleyball for Halloween, flower selling for Valentine's Day. Our major activity for the year was our Spring Prom, "Almost Paradise," which was a huge success. Bowman's A.S.B. is always striving to better Bowman High School through bettering our image and ourselves.

- I spend about ½ hour getting ready for school and rarely more on weekends
- I need not get up any earlier to do my hair
- I could live in my car for a week
- In my car you could find hats, tools, tapes, deodorant & cologne
- I only own 1-3 pairs of shoes
- There is only 1 watch to my name
- Except for rare occasions, I only use 1 can of hairspray per month
- My wallet contains only bare necessities

ODE TO '89

The last year of the 80's decade brought hope and despair into our lives. We suffered many tragedies such as the Alaskan oil spill from the Exxon Valdez, the San Francisco earthquake with the collapse of the Nimitz Freeway, and the hurricane named Hugo with its powerful wind. Dreams of democracy were dashed by violence in China's Tiananmen Square while they were actualized in East Germany's Berlin, and in Poland. Many people were heroes. Not all of them survived. Some people continued to make history while some of our legends passed away. Ronald Reagan left the presidency and Lucille Ball, our queen of laughter, left this world.

We had a few laughs when Zsa Zsa Gabor went to trial for slapping a police officer. But the smile that will stay with us is the one that goes with the hope for freedom and democracy in our world. It seems to be changing and peace may finally be spreading, after all.

Let Murphy Look Into Your Future

Paula Densford - Ten years from now I will be married to Randy and have two kids, a boy and a girl. I will own Daddy's business and live in Beverly Hills.

- MURPHY PREDICTS PAULA WILL TAKE FERTILITY PILLS AND HAVE FOUR SETS OF QUADRUPLETS. SHE WILL BE MARRIED TO A BRAZILIAN SHOE DESIGNER AND WILL FORCE HIM TO ADD ON ANOTHER ROOM, JUST FOR HER SHOES.

Russell La Bash - Ten years from now I will own a resort in Jamaica. I will be one of the most successful single resort owners in the world.

- MURPHY PREDICTS RUSSELL WILL SPEND THE NEXT TEN YEARS TRYING TO GROW DREAD LOCKS AND SAY "RASTA" WITH AN ACCENT, SO THAT HE CAN BE A LOCAL JAMAICAN.

Christine Butterfield - Ten years from now I will have completed all my goals and will be very successful in my career. By then I should also be married with three kids.

- MURPHY PREDICTS CHRISTINE WILL SPEND HER LIFE UNDECIDED ABOUT A CAREER, BUT NOT TO WORRY; SHE WILL BE MARRIED TO THE OWNER OF A BEL AIR ART GALLERY.

Kristi Hajek - Ten years from now I'll be working as a top model and living in Tahiti. I'll then study to be an architect.

- MURPHY PREDICTS KRISTI BECOMES THE TOP MODEL SHE DREAMS OF AND MAKES MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. SHE MOVES TO BEVERLY HILLS WHERE SHE BECOMES THE VICTIM OF A PHONY T.V. EVANGELIST AND DONATES ALL OF HER MONEY TO HIM.

Julie Selph - Ten years from now I will be an undercover homicide detective living in Monterey with my husband and four children.

- MURPHY PREDICTS JULIE BECOMES A PRIME SUSPECT IN SEVERAL OF HER OWN INVESTIGATIONS AND MARRIES A LAWYER TO SAVE ON COURT FEES.

Jennifer Gasser - Ten years from now I'll have graduated from college with my license to practice as a child psychologist. I'll be married and living in California with two children, a boy and a girl.

MURPHY PREDICTS JENNIFER BECOMES A CAMPUS SUPERVISOR HERE AT BOWMAN. AFTER HAVING HER OWN CHILDREN SHE GIVES UP ON TRYING TO UNDERSTAND THEM.

Tina Moe - Ten years from now I'll have graduated from college and started my own accounting firm. I'll be engaged and I will live in Huntington Beach.

- MURPHY PREDICTS TINA WILL FINISH COLLEGE AND START HER OWN ACCOUNTING FIRM. SHE HAS LITTLE SUCCESS AND REDISCOVERS LOUIS WHO HELPS HER START A CLOTHING BUSINESS CALLED PEACHY KEEN, WHERE ALL THE DRESSES ARE MADE OF PEACH SKIN.

Marc Humphreys - Ten years from now I'll be running my own business in Oregon. I'll keep my feet up on my desk while others do the work.

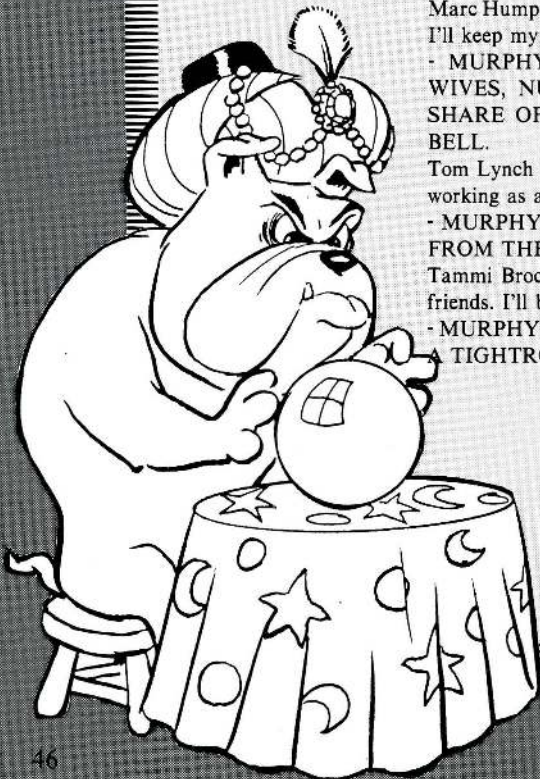

- MURPHY PREDICTS MARC WILL TRY SUPPORTING SEVERAL WIVES, NUMEROUS GIRLFRIENDS, AND MORE THAN HIS FAIR SHARE OF CHILDREN, WITH ONLY A PART-TIME JOB AT TACO BELL.

Tom Lynch - Ten years from now I'll be living here in the Santa Clarita Valley working as a police officer and trying to raise my family.

- MURPHY PREDICTS TOM WILL STILL BE PAYING FOR HIS DEBTS FROM THE BETS HE MADE ON SUPER BOWL XXIV.

Tammi Brocke - Ten years from now I'll be living in Beverly Hills with all my friends. I'll be a mud wrestler and in my free time I'll be a jockey. Oh Yeah!

- MURPHY PREDICTS TAMMY RUNS AWAY TO JOIN THE CIRCUS AS A TIGHTROPE WALKER BUT IS BEAT OUT BY TOM LYNCH.

BOWMAN REMEMBERS

This year, the "Visions" staff decided to remember someone who has touched many hearts and has in some way influenced our lives. A former student of Bowman High, Darren Russo was a great friend to many. Darren loved to play jokes on his friends - this was his way to show his affection for them. He died September 15th, 1989, eight days after his 18th birthday, in a car accident in Tennessee. We all remember and love you, Darren, and you'll always be a part of our lives.

Love,
all your friends

Bowman High's Work Experience Program brings a variety of job experiences to students who participate. Our students take pride in the quality of work they do and in the greater self-sufficiency their earnings give them. We join the business community in commending their efforts and sharing their pride.

Love Robyne & Carrie

Peggy,

Thanks for everything you've done, you ~~are~~ ^{are} a great help & influence on our attendance. You're the greatest!
Have a cool summer!
See you next year!

Peg,

There is so much to tell you & thank you for, I love you guys so much & will never be able to forget you & how much you've done. You were my family & still are I will always love you all. I would never have made it w/out you.

Love
Michelle

Peggy,

You're real great lady.
you really care about us and you show it.
I am sure that's why everyone loves you so dearly. I am going to miss your calls this summer but not that much. Well I'll see you again in the fall.

Have a good summer

Love you lots
Jennifer Jassen

Peggy,

your wonderful and I thank you for calling me everyday I didn't come to school.

Thanks for everything.

Have a great summer

I love you too,
