Jereann Bowman

March 13, 1921 - March 22, 1995

Jereann Bowman came to Newhall in 1927. Hart High School was not built when Jereann was a teenager, and she was bused to San Fernando High School. As an adult she was active in the community and served on the Hart Board of Trustees from 1963 to 1969. She understood kids with special problems and was active in pushing for the establishment of a continuation school for the Santa Clarita Valley area. Bowman High School opened September 29, 1969 next to Canyon High School and moved to its present location in 1992.

"Hey, Man... What's up?" says Carlos Lobato.

"Aw! ... The bell rang already!" complained Elizabeth.

Surprise! You're on Candid Camera!

Bowman High School started the year with a waiting list. There are 320 day students and 40 at night.

Making friends on campus.

"How do I look? Okay, now take the picture," says Crystal Shalbreck.

Mr. Artzer starts his 10th year at Bowman as Principal. Peggy has been with Bowman a whopping 24 years!
