Thursday, November 29, 1928

Frank Gardner, who lived on the Needham ranch for some years and who went to Knoxville, Iowa about three and a half years ago, to live with relatives, returned to Newhall last week, and is again located at Oak Glen, on the Needham ranch. He says he could not stand the rigorous Iowa climate, and likes it much better here.

Changes at Oak Glen

Extensive changes are going on at the Needham Ranch, at the location known as Oak Glen. The change in grade has furnished vast amount of dirt, and this has been used in leveling off a large area, on which Mr. Needham has built a new service station and several camp cottages. The tract when all of the work is completed, will be certainly a beautiful spot. The improvement will cost several thousand dollars when complete.

More Local

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Witzberger, of Tujunga have taken over the Oak Glen Lunch Room and Service Station, and have made it into an outstanding stopping place for the traveling public. They have an abiding faith in Newhall, and do their buying there. One notable feature is that this is not a beer garden, but the quality of food is their drawing card. Stop and try them, some time.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 24, 1936

Mr. and Mrs. Witzberger, up at Oak Glen, are surely pleased with their opening patronage. They have another story in the advertising columns, of their "Food That Satisfies." Stop and see them as you go by. They are featuring fine meats. And they buy in Newhall, which should entitle them to our patronage.

Russ Witzberger disappears-wife
requests search

The Sheriff's office was asked Monday to begin a search for Russell W. Witzberger, who suddenly and without warning, disappeared Friday afternoon.

Witzberger was well known in Newhall, and had been employed at the Ridgeview Dairy, where he had made a good record, according to Walter R. Cook, and was not in financial arrears to his employer.

When he failed to return by Monday, Mrs. Dorothy E. Witzberger, his wife, went to the sheriff station for help. She was unable to assign any reason or motive for his act, but stated that he might have gone to Oregon, or possibly to the hospital at Sawtelle.

The Witzbergers made their home at 215 Race street, in Newhall.

FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1942

● Mrs. Dorothy Witzberger Monday reported to the Sheriff station that Russell Witzberger, who disappeared several days ago, had been located, and asked to have his name taken off the missing person list.

THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1938

According to Dave Gamble, of the So. Cal. Gas Co., the work of moving 500 feet of 22 inch main gas line is progressing rapidly. The job is located just this side of the Oak Glen Auto Court and includes the installation of two big U's which carry the line under two small creek beds. Mr. Gamble says $2,000.00 is being spent in hiring local labor and the job will be finished in about two weeks more.

Form Placerita Post of VFW here

A local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was organized Monday night at a meeting held at the R. C. Philbert ranch in Placerita canyon with Jack Hammell chosen as commander. Other officers named were Dick Philbert, senior vice-commander; Jack Prather, junior vice-commander; "Blackie" Gilliland, post advocate; Earl Zell, quartermaster; Lee Bowman, chaplain, and Paul Barnett, officer of the day. These officers will serve during the rest of this year.

After considerable discussion on a name it was decided to call the new post after the canyon in which it was formed, and the unit will bear the name Placerita Post.

It was decided to hold the charter open for 90 days. During this period all joining the post will be charter members. It was also voted to form an auxiliary unit. Overseas veterans desiring to join the post are requested to contact Jack Hammell or Earl Zell. Any wife, mother, daughter or sister of an overseas veteran is eligible for the Auxiliary and is asked to contact Mrs. Jack Hammell or Mrs. Paul Barnett.

The post organization was carried out under the supervision of George H. Riley, senior assistant chief-of-staff, Dept. of California.

Installation services will take place on July 21.

AT THE COTTAGE

Monday was largely devoted to office work with Chloe Howe and Jeane McDonell going through the files which were in a sad state and well over-stuffed. Pauline Jure made out some canteen reports while Mary Bruner contributed all the sewing done.

We were pleasantly surprised Tuesday when the new treasurer, Mr. Byron Varner came in with Ed Bauer, who is going to make some new signs for us. Men are pretty much of a novelty in the cottage. Shirley Frew took care of the day's business and visited with Mrs. Calzia and Belle McDermott who returned some kit bags and a sweater. Toward evening the Wolverines met with Lavender Gilliland and worked on baby blankets. We noticed some new members, new to us anyway, including Harriet Delano, Kathy Curtis and Glenda Bezzo. Among the other members were Beverley Wheeler, Nada McWhirter, Maybelle Neufeld, Geraldin Holder, Vivian Longnecker, Novice Stone, Carol Williams, Marie Prather and Shannon Prather.

Sally O'Callahan had to go to headquarters for more material Wednesday so Edna Doner was alone most of the day although Bess Lester kept her company for a while. Lois Harbison stopped in to bring back a robe and to admire Milt Ball in appreciation of the use of the cottage during that drive.

Fern Wood brought some homemade candy Thursday for Maud Dull and Babe Erickson. It was a very sorry looking pink baby sweater that Fern was knitting. We accused her of using it for a dust cloth but she said it was one that had been lying around unfinished for months and she was being big-hearted in finishing it. Besides she intends to wash it when done. We take it all back: Fielding Wood put in an appearance and tried to get us to mention the 7th War Loan, but we said we were only interested in Red Cross news.

Gladys Laney brought the main dish for the Friday group, a very tasty casserole of Spanish rice. Hattie Madden furnished bread and real butter and Thelma Cash baked a pie that was really out of this world. Ruth Darjes and Virgie Gilmour went out for some cold drinks and afterward everyone confessed to a slightly full condition. Besides sewing hard while they are here, these ladies do a lot more work at their homes. Lois Harbison dropped in late in the afternoon with 30 kit bags and was pleased to see we had more material for WAC robes. She took seven home with her and we wouldn't be surprised if she had them all made before she got there.

The first aid class last Tuesday evening at the courthouse brought out most of the Forestry service personnel, but we'd like to see more people at the next one. Classes are held every Tuesday from 8 to 10 p. m.

V.F.W. AUX. INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The V.F.W. Auxiliary No. 7895 held its annual installation exercises Apr. 28 at Masonic Hall.

Sister Edith Thompson of Canoga Park Unit 2805 officiated with other officers from San Fernando and Canoga Park.

New officers for the coming year are Mary Barnett, president; Lavender Gilliland, senior vice-president; Joy Griffith, junior vice-president; Carol Arman, treasurer; Grace Marino, secretary; Helma Troast, conductor; Mabel Marino, guard; LaVon Zell, chaplain; Celia Downing, patriotic instructor.

Misses Mary Downey and Nancy Wheeler, playing the guitar, provided enjoyable entertainment.

At the close of the meeting refreshments of doughnuts and coffee were served.

The V.F.W. Post will hold its installation ceremonies on Wednesday, May 12.

W.O.T.M. Notes

The Women of the Moose met on Wednesday evening for their regular meeting, Mrs. Pearl Provol of Sherman Oaks and Mrs. Loretta Thompson were guests.

Plans were made to visit the Reseda Chapter's open meeting on Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas. W. Gilliland was appointed Hospitality chairman.

A Superstition Dance will be held on Friday evening, October 13, at the Moose Lodge in Newhall, to which the public is welcome.

Mrs. Donald Barnett won the door prize for the evening.

After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles W. Gilliland.

● Mrs. Frances Brawley was called back to Little Rock, Ark. recently to care for relatives who are seriously ill. So far she reports only slight improvements.

Jesse Newcomb dies

A heart ailment of long standing was blamed for the death last Wednesday night of Jesse Eugene Newcomb, at his home 16826 San Fernando road. His wife, Mrs. Martha Newcomb was awakened about 9:30 p. m. by her husband's complains of pain in the chest and difficulty in breathing. After home remedies had proved ineffective Dr. Innis was summoned, but life was extinct when he arrived. The deceased was 73 years old and had made his home in Newhall for the past 12 years. He was employed by the Oil Equipment Co.

Funeral services were held at the Wee Kirk O' The Heather Church at 2:30 p. m. Monday, with cremation following. The deceased is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Lavender Gilliland and grandson Armond D. Gilliland. [Incorrect]

Gilliland Services

Memorial services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Wednesday) for Charles Wallace Gilliland at Chapel of the Oaks, Eternal Valley Memorial Park. Officiating will be the Reverend Dr. George Bendall.

Born in Los Angeles, Mr. Gilliland lived in Newhall for 23 years. He was a member of American Legion Post #507.

Mr. Gilliland died Sunday after a long illness at the age of 63. He is survived by his wife, Lavender; two daughters, Arline Sigsbury of Oxnard and Cathy D. Gilliland of Newhall; and four grandchildren.

Inurnment will be at Eternal Valley Memorial Park.

Achievement Center Holds Open House Next Week

An open house will be held Monday through Thursday next week for Pleasantview Achievement Center.

Hours are 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day at 27921 Urbandale, Saugus. The public is invited. A tour and refreshments will be offered to all visitors. The open house is to celebrate the Center's tenth anniversary.

Special Education came to the Santa Clarita Valley in the mid 60-s. The Los Angeles County Superintendent of Schools arranged with Santa Clarita Methodist Church on Bouquet Canyon to use one of their classrooms to hold classes for eight Trainable Mentally Retarded young persons.

Ozella McDaniels was the first teacher, and within a year over 20 students were served in two classrooms. An expanding need resulted in Emblem Special School just behind the church on Espuella Drive.

Students 18 years and over could not remain in the school system unless they also attended a sheltered workshop two hours per day. Community interest resulted in a packed room for a dinner meeting of friends and parents at the church.

First drafts of bylaws were drawn by Attorney Jim Lowder and by December 30, 1969 the incorporation of Pleasantview Achievement Center — a non-profit sheltered workshop/activity center was complete.

A Board of Directors consisted of Arlen Hansen, Jess Reddington, Lavender Gilliland, Jacki Storinsky, Jereann Bowman, Harold Sturza, Roy Kessinger, Jim Pugh and Chairman Olive Ruby. They began to plan, establish, and operate facilities for physically, emotionally and/or mentally retarded adults (the new term is developmentally disabled.); needing such service to achieve their fullest usefulness to themselves and the community.

Dr. Foster and the Saugus Elementary School Board offered a building (rent free) on their District Offices grounds. On October 13, 1970 the Center opened with 13 clients from Emblem Special School, Ann Elliott and Arline Sigsbury as supervisors, and Arleta Burgher as secretary, helped the workers with subcontracts such as assembling sets of plastic ware and salt and pepper packages for airlines and the assembly and bagging of oxygen masks.

Clients always are paid for their work in proportion to that expected of a normal worker. Checks are issued twice a month. Other contracts have included assembly and packaging of light fixtures, collating, folding, assembly and mailing for many organization including clubs, schools, PTA's and churches, much of the mailing donated time as a community service for the Center feels it is a part of the community. As many as 38 clients were served for two hours a day, tuition for some paid by their parents.

By the fall of 1977 the Center had $35,000 in savings, Gerry Howard was hired as director, and with three supervisors, the work day was lengthened to 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for 40 clients.

In 1979 developers Nigro and Saad bought the old

Saugus School property and donated the kindergarten building to Pleasantview if they would remove it from the grounds.

Jess Reddington, shop chairman for the Center and member of the Saugus Elementary School Board, realized that ground on the Rosedell School grounds, along the creek, was not needed. Thanks again to Dr. Foster and the school board the center found a home.

With their savings and the many contributions of cash and labor of such as the Lions Club, Zonta, Soroptomists, HMNMH Buck-a-month Club, Vallery Federal Savings & Loan, Prudential Savings & Loan, Home Savings & Loan, Keysor-Century, Republican Women, Newhall Women's Club, Hydraulic Research, Foxboro, John Kelley & helpers from Pacific Telephone, Rotary, Kiwanis, Sun Production, many many cement & block firms, Rent-all, lumber companies etc, and individuals . . . the building is moved and sufficiently reconitioned for use by the shop.

Contracts have been expanded to include cutting and packing film, heat sealing, etc. The activity center produces bead, hooked rug and painted items for sale.

Staff member Janice Kimbrel teaches money recognition, telling of time, learning traffic signals, reading and writing via the Laubach method.

Bowling on Friday afternoons, and attending Dodger games, Magic Mountain, dances and such provide social life and communication with the community. As a member of the Santa Clarita Valley

Chamber of Commerce, they process the mailing of their bulletins.

Their new home is not finished but they are on their way, thanks to a generous community. The Board of Directors — Rocco Cacciatore, chairman; Jess Reddington, shop chairman; Tonia Henson Treasurer, Olive Ruby, Secretary; Bob Routolo, Jim Pugh, Jim Fortunato, Arlen Hansen and Eilene Graziano, Gerry Howard, director of the center, and the staff look forward to meeting the public.

Directions may be obtained by calling 251-6700.
